

Online Workshop

ONLINE DISPUTE RESOLUTION: PRESENT AND FUTURE

Thursday, November 15, 2019 | 4:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m. EST

ONLINE DISPUTE RESOLUTION LITERATURE

There is a vast amount of information on Online Dispute Resolution out there. Here is some information you may find helpful towards the discussion:

- ODR Offers a New Way to Access Local Courts
Pew Research Center
- Court-Related Online Dispute Resolution is...
National Center for State Courts
- ODR: Online Dispute Resolution Platform
Cyberjustice Laboratory

Articles

- Utah's Online Dispute Resolution Program
Justice Deno Himonas, Dickinson Law Review
- ODR and the Courts
Karim Benyekhlef & Nicolas Vermeys, Mediate.com
- Ontario's First Online Tribunal
Karim Benyekhlef & Nicolas Vermeys, Slaw
- SXSW 2019: Utah, 'Pajama Court' and Resolving Cases Online
Zack Quaintance, Government Technology

Podcasts

- Could 80 Percent of Cases be Resolved By Online Dispute Resolution?
Angela Morris, Legal Rebels, ABA Journal
- Resolutions: A Podcast About Dispute Resolution and Prevention
American Bar Association

By registering for this workshop, you consent to the recording of audio and video from this workshop and to publication of that recording on the Center for Legal & Court Technology's password-protected Court Affiliates website.